

Utahn Reaches Ninety Today

KAYSVILLE — Four generations of Marthas were together recently at Kaysville when a daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter visited Mrs. Martha M. Burton, who will celebrate her 90th birthday Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. F. B. Ringer of Kaysville. Mrs. Burton's mother also was named Martha.

Mrs. Burton was born Feb. 19, 1857, at Provo, a daughter of Erastus and Martha Jones Mecham, early pioneers, who arrived in Utah July 25, 1847. The family lived in Fairview, Salt Lake City and then North Ogden, where Mrs. Burton met Joseph H. Burton, whom she married Sept. 6, 1875.

The couple made their home in Park valley, Box Elder county, for 46 years, where Mr. Burton became known for his ability as a farmer and cattleman. Friends, neighbors and other cam from miles around to Mrs. Burton, who, without special training, successfully set fractured bones, bandaged serious cuts and nursed the sick.

A leading figure of her community in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Mrs. Burton was president of the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Assn. for 27 years, president of the Relief society for eight years and had been an active leader in the Sunday school since she was 12 years old and for many years in the Primary Assn.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1925 and Mr. Burton died in 1927.

Six of the 11 sons and daughters of Mrs. Burton are living. They are Joseph H. Burton, Burley, Ida.; Mrs. D. P. Frost, Sparks, Nev.; Mrs. W. R. Funk, Rosemead, Cal.; Iven H. Burton, Park Valley, Utah, and Ira J. Burton, West Jordan. She also has 43 grandchildren and 52 great-grandchildren.

THOMAS E. BUTLER AND ELIZA JANE FORD

Eliza Jane Ford was born July 2, 1879, at Wallsburg, to Joseph Lewis Ford and Eliza Lovisa Smith. She married Thomas E. Butler of Park City, Utah, born November 6, 1870, Sidney Mines, Nova Scotia, Canada. He died July 22, 1938, at Ontario, California. She died December 2, 1946, at Ontario,

929

California, and both he and she are buried at Chino, California.

When Eliza Jane was nine years old her mother passed away so she helped her invalid grandmother and her father raise the younger children.

When she was a young lady she went to Park City to find employment. While there she met Thomas E. Butler, a mining engineer. They were married and later moved to Butte, Montana. Here their daughter, Lauretta, was born December 15, 1897, at Butte, Montana.

From Butte they moved to Bisbee, Arizona, where he worked at the copper mines. On retiring, they went to Ontario, California, where they had bought a place where they raised walnuts and chickens.

Their daughter Lauretta married Horace T. Kieler, September 3, 1923, at Berkeley, California. Lauretta is living in San Mateo, California, and has one son, Ide Eldon Kieler.

THOMAS E. BUTLER AND ELIZA JANE FORD

Eliza Jane Ford was born July 2, 1879, at Wallsburg, to Joseph Lewis Ford and Eliza Lovisa Smith. She married Thomas E. Butler of Park City, Utah, born November 6, 1870, Sidney Mines, Nova Scotia, Canada. He died July 22, 1938, at Ontario, California. She died December 2, 1946, at Ontario,

929

California, and both he and she are buried at Chino, California.

When Eliza Jane was nine years old her mother passed away so she helped her invalid grandmother and her father raise the younger children.

When she was a young lady she went to Park City to find employment. While there she met Thomas E. Butler, a mining engineer. They were married and later moved to Butte, Montana. Here their daughter, Lauretta, was born December 15, 1897, at Butte, Montana.

From Butte they moved to Bisbee, Arizona, where he worked at the copper mines. On retiring, they went to Ontario, California, where they had bought a place where they raised walnuts and chickens.

Their daughter Lauretta married Horace T. Kieler, September 3, 1923, at Berkeley, California. Lauretta is living in San Mateo, California, and has one son, Ide Eldon Kieler.

Paul Butters
Mary Young